

Dakota Shy

2015 TEN PROPRIETARY BLEND

From carefully selected vineyards, produced in very small quantities and artfully crafted to reflect a sense of place, Dakota Shy wines are a testament to Napa Valley's reputation for producing the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines in the world.

“Complex aromatics show a range of ripe plum, black currant, sage and dried herb notes layered over mocha and caramel. The palate texture is pure silk, supporting a rich, lush mouthful of plum, dark berries, baking spices, herbs, cocoa and vanilla bean. Totally delicious and accessible now with fine grain tannin balancing the plush texture. The 2015 TEN Red Wine will be even better with a few years in the cellar but it’s so good now there’s not much reason to wait...”
